4. Updates and News

CRCOG staff gave an overview of recent updates and news. Emily Hultquist reminded committee members of the Open Planning Studio that CRCOG is holding for the Complete Streets Plan on October 10 and 11. She also noted that the network map is still available online.

Other updates included:

- Trail openings and completions
- Recent LOTCIP project selections by CRCOG
- Save the dates for a number of meetings and events
  - Committee members gave updates on the grand opening of the Bike NB Center, the Discover CT ride, a pedestrian awareness event in New Britain, Pedal to the Medal, Bike/Walk CT's annual dinner, and events held by Transport Hartford.
- An update on the 2018 Bike/Ped Count

5. Presentation on the Coventry-Bolton Nathan Hale Greenway Study

Patrice Carson gave a presentation on the status of the Coventry-Bolton Nathan Hale Greenway Study. The study was funded through a Recreational Trails grant and is looking at land that was taken for the defunct Route 6 Expressway project. The study is not finalized yet, but the early results from surveys and outreach indicate that people generally prefer a footpath instead of a full multi-use trail.

Committee members had questions about: the length (2.5 miles); surface material (dirt); cost ($112k) and width (4 to 6 feet). Committee members had a discussion about conflicts between property owners and recreational users. They also discussed conflicts between various types of trail users and discussed how conflicts are addressed in other places.
