

MORTON SALT

June 28, 2018

To whom it may concern,

I, Daniel P. Thompson, who is Vice President of Bulk Deicing Sales & Marketing at Morton Salt, Inc, duly swears that our Blizzard Wizard product being offered for Bid #673 is ecologically safe and is in compliance with all applicable CT Department of Environmental Protection and US Environmental Protection Agency regulations. Morton Salt does not sell or manufacture any material obtained through fracking.
