The Capitol Region Council of Governments introduces a great opportunity to become its newest Community Development Planner.

The Capitol Region Council of Governments (CRCOG) is a voluntary Council of Governments formed to initiate and implement regional programs of benefit to the towns and the region. It is guided by the chief elected officials of our 38 Metro Hartford municipalities. The mayors, first selectmen, and town council chairmen who make up our governing Policy Board recognize that the future of our individual members is tied to the future of our region. Our members have collaborated for more than 50 years on a wide range of projects to benefit our towns individually and the region as a whole. CRCOG is the largest of Connecticut's nine regional planning organizations and serves as the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) for the Metro Hartford area.

This position reports to the Community Development Deputy. The incumbent exercises considerable initiative and independent judgment within an assigned area of responsibility, and work is subject to evaluation on the basis of results obtained.

CRCOG offers competitive benefits.

This is a Full Time position (35 hours/week)
Salary (FY22-23): $55,443-$69,537
CRCOG is an Equal Opportunity Employer

The Capitol Region Council of

Community Development Planner

Summary of Position

CRCOG is seeking a qualified professional to perform a variety of planning activities within the Community Development branch of the Planning Department.

Duties and Responsibilities

General duties include providing expert planning, research, and policy analysis for the greater Hartford region in the areas of transportation, land use, housing, community development and environmental planning/sustainability.

Incumbents at this level provide specialized knowledge and expertise and/or assist with the management of large projects with supervision. The position will require collaboratively working with others.

Typical assignments may include (but are not limited to) assisting with managing large scope projects; reviewing zoning and subdivision proposals occurring along town boundaries; reviewing municipal plans of conservation and development; providing expertise to various committees as assigned; and assisting in preparing and reviewing grant proposals, applications, and budgets for various funding sources. Incumbents exercise considerable initiative and independent judgment within an assigned area of responsibility, and work is subject to evaluation on the basis of results obtained.

Desirable Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

Knowledge of:

- Principles and practices of regional planning including transportation, land use and environmental planning/sustainability
- Research methods and analysis
- Public policy process and advocacy
- Project development, implementation, and management
- Computer equipment and advanced uses of word processing, spreadsheet, graphics, database and other software
- Geographic Information Systems

Ability to:

- Research and analyze various factors involved in regional planning.
- Operate computers and word processing software and other standard office equipment.
- Communicate clearly and effectively orally and in writing.
- Speak in a public forum providing information and answering questions.
- Prepare clear, accurate records and reports.
- Coordinate and facilitate meetings.
- Establish and maintain highly effective working relationships with managers, elected and appointed officials, staff, community and business leaders, the media, and others encountered during work.
- Organize, coordinate, and prioritize multiple project assignments.
- Handle multiple projects simultaneously and use good judgment in prioritizing work assignments.
- Maintain effectiveness under pressure of variable time constraints and deadlines.
