Safe Streets and Roads for All (SS4A) FY23

- Focus on reducing serious and fatal injuries on road ways
  - Use data
- Our partners from the federal government are putting an emphasis this program cycle on projects deemed “Shovel Worthy”
- A de-emphasis on regional cooperation
- Temporary fixes/safety improvements
- Smaller in scope projects allowed

ROAD TO SAVING LIVES

Our Current Reality in Connecticut

According to CTDOT figures: In 2022, there were 239 driver/passenger fatalities which is an increase of 41.5% over the last 5 years as well as 75 pedestrian fatalities which is an increase of 31% over the last 5 years

Current trends show Traffic & Pedestrian fatalities in Connecticut are on the rise
