

YOU ARE INVITED

COMMUNITY FIRST CONVERSATIONS

United Way of Central and Northeastern Connecticut has kicked-off its next Strategic Planning Process, the core of which will be focused on our community. As a part of this process, United Way has collaborated with CRCOG to host Community FIRST Conversations with municipal leaders and organizations in our region, and we want to hear from you. Lend your voice to help inform United Way's next strategic plan – Share your thoughts, concerns, barriers, and discuss potential solutions to human and social service matters affecting your communities. To encourage engagement in a comfortable, small group environment, participation is limited to first 15 people to respond.
